

Mission statement - Partnering With Communities To Prevent Veteran Suicide

Area of Service - Throughout the United States

AWP Network Service Number - 1-866-297-8387

About - At the national level, The AWP Network bridges the gaps between veteran service organizations and public agencies to connect veterans, their families, and caregivers with needed resources. To date, the AWP Network has assisted more than 10,000 veterans, family members and caregivers in 1,200 counties. On a local level, AWP's five community branches utilizes a proven one-size-fits-one Community Integration (CI) Model. This model is a Four-Step Plan to connect, educate, advocate, and collaborate with veterans, their families, caregivers, and communities. These branches work to build relationships with veterans in their community to provide support at every stage of veterans' lives proactively and holistically before a crisis occurs.

President & CEO Bio - Jim Lorraine, the President & CEO of America's Warrior Partnership, served in the U.S. Air Force as a Flight Nurse with nine combat deployments and retired as a Lieutenant Colonel and the Deputy Command Surgeon for the United States Special Operations Command after 22 years of service. He became the founding director of the United States Special Operations Command Care Coalition and served as Special Assistant for Warrior and Family Support to the Chairman, Joint Chiefs of Staff.
